Dear Angie,

Letter of Congratulations

Congratulations on being awarded The Straits Times Singaporean of the Year 2019 on Tuesday February 11, 2020 at the Istana.

Brahm Centre, which was started with your vision, has flourished with your perseverance.

The same individuals whom you have helped, for instance Mdm Chng, who is now working with AssistLine, demonstrate how Brahm Centre is creating a positive legacy of cascading impact. Having edited Brahm Centre's 2014 book "The Day the Ball didn't Bounce" and the 2016 book "Bend Not Break - Learning From Loss", both stemming from the tragic loss of Mdm Chng's son, I am heartened she has Brahm Centre and your good self to journey forward together.

Once again, heartiest congratulations on your achievement. I wish you the best as you grow Brahm Centre from strength to strength.

Yours sincerely,

Ms. Yap Su-Yin
Chief Executive Officer
